MISSION ACCOMPLISHED POLICIES

Welcome to Mission Accomplished! I look forward to working with you towards your health & fitness goals!

Thank you in advance for your support & cooperation.

- Take responsibility to pre-pay & pre-schedule personal training sessions with Mission Accomplished.
- Understand that these sessions are non-refundable and non-transferable, and must be used within six months of the date purchased.
- Understand the cancellation policy:
- 24-hour notice of a cancellation is required; sessions will not be rescheduled or refunded.
- Understand that sessions should be scheduled at least one week in advance. As your trainer, my schedule may change, that could affect your session with only short notice although this rarely happens.
- Know your scheduled training session/appointment time. If you do arrive late, we may not be able to extend the session training session/ appointment time.
- As your personal trainer, I request a 14-day advanced notice be given for vacations or scheduled absences during the term of the training package contract.
- Understand that ultimately you are responsible for obtaining your fitness goals and that what you do outside of personal training sessions can affect your overall health & fitness.

Child policy: Mission Accomplished asks that you not bring your children to your appointments but I understand that sometimes this cannot be avoided. If there is a chance that you will need to bring a child with you, you must get approval. If approved, bring something constructive for your child to do quietly while you are working out. Mission Accomplished does not allow children to play with or climb on equipment.
